

Regarding ATI Specialty Materials ISO 14001 and 45001 Certifications

- ISO 14001 – ATI SM is currently going through recert audits. The final audit will be completed in October. The new cert will be issued by an ANAB accredited auditing body and the issue date will be October of 2024.
- ISO 45001 – ATI SM is currently self-certifying to the ISO 45001 standard. We have been audited to the standard this year by a 3rd party auditor.
- Future State – ATI SM is looking for a new auditing body that has ANAB accreditation to audit both ISO 14001 and 45001.
